

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Raymond Katchatag,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska, Department of Corrections,

Appellee.

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-18-09306CI

Supreme Court No. S-17432

Order

Motion for Extension of Time

Date of Order: 1/2/2020

Appellant, Raymond Katchatag, files a motion for extension of time to file his opening brief – he asks for an extension until January 31, 2020. This is Katchatag’s second motion and, if granted, will extend his total briefing time to 150 days.

Appellee, Department of Corrections, opposes the motion, arguing that Katchatag has not demonstrated the showing of diligence, substantial need, or extraordinary circumstances required by Appellate Rule 503.5(c)(1) and (2).

The Appellee’s arguments are valid, but Katchatag did state that he is involved in multiple legal matters and the court notes he is self-represented.

IT IS ORDERED:

The motion for extension is GRANTED; however, no further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances. Extraordinary circumstances will not include the circumstances Katchatag has stated in his prior motions for extensions.
